American Shoes

A REFUGEE'S STORY

by Rosemarie Lengsfeld Turk and Garrett L. Turk

Set against the backdrop of World War II, American Shoes recounts the tumultuous childhood of a young American girl and her family trapped within Germany at time when the country turned against itself and human decency eroded and then vaporized. Forced to grow up in the midst of endemic fear stoked by a ravenous madman, American Shoes portrays the breakdown of a society from a child's point of view, deep inside a land where millions of law-abiding citizens were targeted as threats and then removed for extermination. Ultimately about hope, Rosemarie Lengsfeld Turk's story illustrates that we can emerge resilient from even the darkest of times. Visit americanshoesbook.com.

I Shook Up the World, 20th Anniversary Edition

THE INCREDIBLE LIFE OF MUHAMMAD ALI
 by Maryum Ali; illustrated by Patrick Johnson

Inspired by her father’s life, Maryum “May May” Ali wrote I Shook Up the World to encourage children to follow their dreams. Before he became the greatest heavyweight boxing champion of the world, Muhammad Ali was known as Cassius Clay, a kid with a dream. At the young age of 12, he was fueled by determination and drew upon the mantra his father whispered: “Do what’s inside your heart, and never give up on your dreams.”

Growing Friendships

A KIDS’ GUIDE TO MAKING AND KEEPING FRIENDS
 by Dr. Eileen Kennedy-Moore and Christine McLaughlin

Learning how to make and keep friends is one of the important tasks of early childhood, but kids are constantly in conflict with even their best friends—whether it’s through unkind words, physical acts, exclusion, or other forms of rejection. With research-based practical solutions and plenty of true-to-life examples presented in lighthearted cartoons, Growing Friendships is a toolkit for kids to make sense of the social order around them. After reading this book on their own or with a caring adult, children will be equipped to face their friendship challenges. Danny’s Day in Heaven

by Marie Antoinette Kelley

Based on the bestseller Saved by the Light and dozens of other near-death experiences, this beautifully illustrated book is designed to comfort and reassure children about the reality of an afterlife. Danny’s Day in Heaven tells the fascinating story of one young not-so-nice boy who goes surfing during a storm and ends up traveling through a tunnel of light, finding himself on the other side. What he discovers, who he meets, and the lessons he learns before returning to Earth will ease fears and give hope to readers about life after death. A wonderful gift for anyone who has ever asked—or had to answer—the all-important question: “What happens when we die?” Visit makfineart.com.

The Great Change

by White Deer of Autumn; illustrated by Carol Grigg

In this Native American tale, a wise grandmother explains the meaning of death, or the Great Change, to her questioning granddaughter. While going through their daily tasks in the Indigenous way, taking from Mother Earth only what is needed and returning what is not used so as to replenish her, 9-year-old Wanba asks, “Why do the fish have to die? Why does anything have to die? Why did Grandpa have to die?” Grandmother explains that just as a caterpillar “dies” only to become a beautiful butterfly, there is no “death” in the Circle of Life—only the Great Change. This is a story of passing on tradition, culture, and wisdom to the next generation. It is a moving tale for everyone—child and adult—who wonders about what lies beyond this life.

The Magical Starfruit Tree

by Rosalind C. Wang; illustrated by Shao Wei Liu

The Magical Starfruit Tree teaches children about the virtue of sharing, especially with those less fortunate than you, through the retelling of a Chinese folktale by an author and an illustrator who are both Chinese. The Magical Starfruit Tree tells the story of a greedy peddler, a kindhearted young boy, and an old beggar, touching on one of the main tenets of the Chinese culture, which is to honor your elders and treat them with respect.

Fantastic Failures

TRUE STORIES OF PEOPLE WHO CHANGED THE WORLD BY FALLING DOWN FIRST

by Luke Reynolds

As a teacher, Luke Reynolds observed that students suffer from stress over grades, fitting in, and trying to get things right the first time. The profiles of well-known figures teach that mistakes do not have to define their lives and that learning from failures is essential to growing into their full potential. Reynolds features people such as J. K. Rowling, Rosa Parks, and Steven Spielberg, and intermixes life-changing scientific and medical discoveries happened upon completely by accident. Each profile is followed up with advice on how to come back from your own flops and move forward to succeed. Visit lukewreynolds.com.

Elizabeth's Song

by Michael Wenberg; illustrated by Cornelius Van Wright

Elizabeth's Song is the true-life story of Elizabeth Cotton, the noted African American folksinger, guitarist, and songwriter. Against all odds, young Elizabeth teaches herself to play guitar left-handed on a borrowed instrument. Eventually, she earns enough money to buy a guitar of her very own and is then inspired to write her first song—the folk classic “Freight Train,” written when she was 11 years old. Elizabeth’s unique style of playing guitar (upside down and backwards), from which the musical term “cotton-picking” is derived, has influenced countless other musicians. Elizabeth’s story is one that will inspire people of all ages.
